

TV: 30 “Wayne’s Friend”

Script	Source
Looked at Wayne Gilchrest’s spending record lately?
Congressman Gilchrest voted to waste our money on a Bridge to Nowhere in Alaska.	HR 3, Transportation Equity Act: Roll Call #453, 07/29/05 Text of Bill: SEC. 1114. HIGHWAY BRIDGE PROGRAM. (g) Bridge Set-asides- (1) DESIGNATED PROJECTS- (A) IN GENERAL- Of the amounts authorized to be appropriated to carry out the bridge program under this section for each of the fiscal years 2006 through 2009, all but $100,000,000 shall be apportioned as provided in subsection (e). Such $100,000,000 shall be available as follows: (ii) $18,750,000 per fiscal year for the construction of a bridge joining the Island of Gravina to the community of Ketchikan in Alaska. SEC. 1702. PROJECT AUTHORIZATIONS. Subject to section 117 of title 23, United States Code, the amount listed for each high priority project in the following table shall be available (from amounts made available by section 1101(a)(16) of this Act) for fiscal years 2005 through 2009 to carry out each such project: Highway Projects High Priority Projects No. 406, AK: Planning, design, and construction of a bridge joining the Island of Gravina to the Community of Ketchikan.....$100,000,000 Washington Post, 04/30/06: “Remember the ‘Bridge to Nowhere’? Last fall, after House Transportation Committee Chairman Don Young (R-Alaska) and Senate Appropriations Committee Chairman Ted Stevens (R-Alaska) earmarked $223 million to link the remote

	town of Ketchikan (population 8,900) to the more remote island of Gravina (population 50), the Bridge to Nowhere became a national symbol of congressional porkmania, lampooned by Leno, Letterman and Limbaugh. It was the most brazen of the record-breaking 6,300-plus earmarks inserted by individual members of Congress into the record-breaking $286 billion transportation bill. Even Parade magazine, not known for its muckraking, featured the project as a poster child for government waste.”
Voted to pay people to take Viagra.	Roll Call #312, 06/24/05 King, R-Iowa, amendment that would prohibit the use of funds in the bill to pay for drugs prescribed for the treatment of impotence.
Voted to fund a zoo in Texas.	Roll Call #702, 07/24/07 Flake, R-Ariz., amendment that would limit the use of funds in the bill for Houston Zoo.
Fifty times there were efforts to stop the waste and Wayne Gilchrest voted for more pork all fifty times.	50 anti-pork amendments over 2006-2007: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Club for Growth 2007 RePORK Card: Wayne Gilchrest voted against 46 anti-pork amendments • 2006 Pork Amendments: Wayne Gilchrest voted against 4 anti-pork amendments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Roll Call #338, 06/28/06 ○ Roll Call #337, 06/28/06 ○ Roll Call #336, 06/28/06 ○ Roll Call #335, 06/28/06 (See attached sheet for full listing)
He even voted to spend our money on the Mule and Packers Museum in California.	Roll Call #700, 07/24/07 Flake, R-Ariz., amendment that would bar the use of funds in the bill for the National Forest Recreation Association in Woodlake, Calif., to construct the National

	Mule and Packers Museum.
Call, tell Wayne Gilchrest to stop wasting our money.

Radio: 60 “Outrageous”

Script	Source
Maryland’s so-called Republican congressman Wayne Gilchrest is on a liberal pork spending spree like never before.
Alaska’s “Bridge to Nowhere”? Gilchrest voted for it.	HR 3, Transportation Equity Act: Roll Call #453, 07/29/05 Text of Bill: SEC. 1114. HIGHWAY BRIDGE PROGRAM. (g) Bridge Set-asides- (1) DESIGNATED PROJECTS- (A) IN GENERAL- Of the amounts authorized to be appropriated to carry out the bridge program under this section for each of the fiscal years 2006 through 2009, all but $100,000,000 shall be apportioned as provided in subsection (e). Such $100,000,000 shall be available as follows: (ii) $18,750,000 per fiscal year for the construction of a bridge joining the Island of Gravina to the community of Ketchikan in Alaska. SEC. 1702. PROJECT AUTHORIZATIONS. Subject to section 117 of title 23, United States Code, the amount listed for each high priority project in the following table shall be available (from amounts made available by section 1101(a)(16) of this Act) for fiscal years 2005 through 2009 to carry out each such project: Highway Projects High Priority Projects

	No. 406, AK: Planning, design, and construction of a bridge joining the Island of Gravina to the Community of Ketchikan.....$100,000,000 Washington Post, 04/30/06: Remember the "Bridge to Nowhere"? Last fall, after House Transportation Committee Chairman Don Young (R-Alaska) and Senate Appropriations Committee Chairman Ted Stevens (R-Alaska) earmarked $223 million to link the remote town of Ketchikan (population 8,900) to the more remote island of Gravina (population 50), the Bridge to Nowhere became a national symbol of congressional porkmania, lampooned by Leno, Letterman and Limbaugh. It was the most brazen of the record-breaking 6,300-plus earmarks inserted by individual members of Congress into the record-breaking $286 billion transportation bill. Even Parade magazine, not known for its muckraking, featured the project as a poster child for government waste.
Something called the Mule and Packers Museum in California? Yup, Gilchrest voted to waste our tax dollars on that too.	Roll Call #700, 07/24/07 Flake, R-Ariz., amendment that would bar the use of funds in the bill for the National Forest Recreation Association in Woodlake, Calif., to construct the National Mule and Packers Museum.
Liberal Wayne Gilchrest even voted to use our money to pay for people to take Viagra.	Roll Call #312, 06/24/05 King, R-Iowa, amendment that would prohibit the use of funds in the bill to pay for drugs prescribed for the treatment of impotence.
It's shocking but true.
Wayne Gilchrest has one of the most liberal, big-spending records of any Republican in Congress.	Was 1 of only 23 House Republicans to score a 0% on the Club for Growth's 2007 RePORK Card.

It's a wonder he even calls himself a Republican anymore.
Gilchrest even voted to expand eminent domain powers to allow state governments to take private property from one land owner and give it to another.	Roll Call #350, 06/30/05 Garrett, R-N.J., amendment that would prohibit the use of funds in the bill to improve or construct infrastructure support on private property obtained through the power of eminent domain for private development.
That's outrageous. That's liberal. That's Wayne Gilchrest.
Call, tell Wayne Gilchrest to stop wasting our money.	